DATABASE DEVELOPMENT

Kleider, Hanna. Subnational Government Finance Statistics (SGFS). The dataset compiles subnational spending data for 250 subnational governments in 15 OECD countries from 1990 onwards. It focuses on three policy areas: social services, education and health. It also includes information on subnational deficit levels, subnational GDP, subnational unemployment rates and a number of demographic variables.

Regional Authority Index (RAI) 2015. Research Assistance. This is a regional-level dataset that provides information on the authority of regional governments in 81 countries on an annual basis across ten dimensions: institutional depth, policy scope, fiscal autonomy, borrowing autonomy, representation, law making, executive control, fiscal control, borrowing control, constitutional reform.

Comparative Welfare State Dataset (CWS) 2013. Research Assistance, This is a country-level dataset that provides information on an array of welfare state, economic and demographic indicators for 22 democracies from 1960-2011.
